About The Book

This is the 3rd edition of the book after successful and wild response from the readers for previous two editions. This is the compilation of four stories described in India, love is the core concept of the stories.

The love depicted in the book is not only external attraction but internal instinct.

Ponytail the story of a rich businessman who falls in love of his employee. The chocolate, the first crush and the secret love are stories of young adults.

The love stories in the book have some unusual twist and unexpected climaxes.

Editorial reviews

IR Verdict: Filled with more suspenseful twists and romantic moments, the characters in LOVE STORIES discover constant complications and challenges....

‘Set in India, five separate vignettes detail out episodes for characters of different ages, occupations, and family backgrounds as they grapple with finding, and holding onto, love.

Though this collection of stories revolves around a universal theme of looking for love, it is not as light-hearted or warm as it sounds. Love is shown in multiple circumstances: the unrequited kind, the tragic love that cannot be due to external factors, and the joyous form of reciprocated love. As the characters’ struggle with their feelings for each other, the different situations that they find themselves in based on a combination of the choices that they make and serendipity that ensues represent eclectic, original cases....’

~ Ed Bennett (Indie Reader editorial review).
