A Holy Untouchable

A Play

By

Ankít Tyagi

Whatever I am today it is all because of my hard efforts, diligence and grace of my elders. In life I had faced multitudinous hassles and hindrances but despite of that I never abdicate my goals. There is no shortcut to attain success. For me there were three mantras to reach the sky and attain my goal -

1. Respect your parents and elders
2. Respect your work and remain scrupulous throughout
3. Try to be an altruist

So, these are the three mantras I taught to my son and I am glad because he acquiesce me, At the green age of 26 , he has already earned name and fame , seeds of maturity and firmness can be seen in him clearly. I am a proud father

Dedication

I would dedicate this book to my parents, who raised me to be a free thinker and have always supported me whenever I have pursued a passion.

Secondly, I would dedicate this book to all those who judges an individual not on the basis of his caste but on the basis of his work.

Acknowledgement

First and foremost I am grateful to the Almighty, the creator to whom I owe my very existence. I have to thank my honorable parents for their love and support throughout my life. Thank you both for giving me strength to reach for the stars and chase my dreams. I would also like to thank my supervisor, Dr. Sushil Kumar Mishra for his encouragement and blessings. The title of this book “A Holy Untouchable” itself is a sarcastic remark on all those who discriminate on the basis of caste.’ In prehistoric times people used to judge an individual on the basis of his religion. People who belongs to upper castes, they were too harsh and rude towards all those who belongs to lower castes. So, through this play I want to encourage people to abolish caste barriers. Every individual is born equal so, there should be no partiality in the society on the basis of caste, race and gender. I am also indebted to Prof. Dr. Ashish Chokker for his gratitude towards my play worth to be published. I wish to intimate my thankfulness to Educreation for publishing my play “A Holy Untouchable”

Introduction

“A holy untouchable” is a fictional play. All the characters and events in this play are fictional. Somehow through this play I tried to share my personal views and perspective. In the post independent era Brahmins were exploiting minorities in the name of god and religion. Although I am a Brahmin but yet I have guts to accept the vices and flaws which we Brahmins possess. I also acknowledge the fact that in modern time the situation is somehow reversed. Now a day’s minority groups are getting adequate reservations and subsidies but yet they are not contented .the whole play is a sarcastic remark on all those who discriminate on the basis of caste and gender. The play reveals the plight of minorities during the post independent era. The crux of this play is to make people aware that education is the only medium to uplift in this unjust society. Throughout this play my intentions were to satirize vices of men.
