ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First, I would like to give my special thanks to you, who has kept faith in me while picking up my book. Nevertheless I would also thank all those, who have been in my life.

My Mom and Dad who have always trusted me and permitted me to do everything that I feel like, with a faith, that I'll never let them down.

My Sister and Brother, who have supported me in all my deeds.

My friends Akshi, Rohit, Ajay, Neeshu, Amit Puri and Himanshu, who have helped me in reviewing my book from inception to end. Your feedback meant a lot to me.

This book would not have been possible without my special friend, whose name I'll not be mentioning but she has always been an inspiration and soul to me while writing this book. I would also like to give my sincere thanks to entire team of FSP Media Publications who have helped me to reach the world.

And last but not the least, Microsoft for giving me a platform to write. My precious Laptop and Google, which have always been by my side and have given me resources to write this book.

The next great thing ever happened on this universe is 'Life'. Yeah! First being the Universe itself. Being a biotechnologist, I can easily justify life by mere description of some combination of bio-molecules.

But will it really justify those emotions attached with it? Those love and hatred, that exist among mankind?

A man is born with a cry of his Mom and then, grows up to justify his very existence on this Earth. All it takes him, to live his life and nothing else.

He is born with nothing. But carries millions of feelings with him throughout his life.

I too was born with those nothing feelings. But then, I sensed... the one word that changed my life 'LOVE'.

PROLOGUE

“I lived for her but still... I am not living. I wanted to die for her but still... I am alive. She was the last I loved, but still... she is not mine.”

Driving the car towards the hospital, Ishaan was lost deep in his thought. He was not sure how to heal his pain, how to treat his life.

And..... there was a clash, the car banged through the bridge.

And the next Moment.....

O

“I still don’t remember when my dream got shattered. Since when I started living the way I never wanted to be. The life changed, the dream changed, me myself was changed”

O

“Those moments are still precious to me. I still feel the pain of the school bus moving far away from me, taking my life away. It was just a matter of few hours, she would have been back to school the very next day. But, my heart didn’t accept that.”

“I used to cycle behind the bus till I can. I never wished to miss the single sec to be near her.”

Aaasha was special to me, I couldn’t think of losing her company. At that time, moon was always full for me, the gardens always blossomed with roses. The world was for me.

My friends used to dream to be engineers, doctors. But, I dreamed to be her boyfriend, then to be her husband and then sitting in a car beside her. Driving to a dream place, holding her hand with two sweet little children sitting behind, holding two red balloons flying outside the car’s window. This was not just a dream but, this was my life, life with Aaasha.

My head collapsed to the rock when my body took a large turn with the flow of water between the aquatic weeds, which stroked my legs in their arms.

Driving deep into the river I understood at the end of my life, why the water was always shown blue. It's the sky, the blue sky that we can only seeeeeeee when you are deep into the sea.

O

And again there was another collision. I could clearly see the red color from my head painting the beautiful blue sky. I think God was generous enough to give me the beautiful end with this beautiful picture of heaven.

O

And then the next moment..... I was curled in the weeds, deep beneath the sea.

"I lived for her but still... I am not living.
I wanted to die for her but still... I am alive.
She was the last I loved, but still... she is not mine"

It was a dream for Ishaan to leave behind everything for his school friend Aashaa,
Not until he realised the priorities of the life,
met the reality of his dream.
And... the true friendship of his life.

Will he choose his love over his friendship...?
Or will he leave everything behind?
Just dig in it. And you will realise the true meaning of friendship and the real sense of love.....
the Life Unexpectedly.

If you believe in love
It's for you.
If you been in love
It's for you.
And if you found love
to be one of the most ruthless sugar of your life
Then it's definitely for YOU...
